

Operation Food for Life

Papua New Guinea

Status: In Progress

Country Office: United States

Duration: July 2017 to TBA

Project Coordinator: Jim Rennie

What does this project aim to achieve?

Operation Food for Life is an Australian based NGO delivering child based projects for poor children in Papua New Guinea. Child Impact International is supporting these projects.

What does this project aim to achieve?

The needy children who are assisted within the Operation Food for Life projects.

Why has Child Impact chosen this project?

Child Impact is excited to be a partner of Operation Food for Life and believes in the work it is doing. Operation Food for Life projects meet the objectives of Child Impact in helping feed and educate needy children.

How will this project be funded?

Child Impact is excited to be a partner of Operation Food for Life and believes in the work it is doing. Operation Food for Life projects meet the objectives of Child Impact in helping feed and educate needy children.

What can you do to help?

You can help by contributing to this project.